CHRISTIAN STUDIES SYLLABUS

INTERIM JOINT MATRICULATION BOARD EXAMINATION (IJMBE) CHRISTIAN RELIGIOUS STUDIES (CRS) SYLLABUS (REVISED 2012)

Introduction 1.00

The Interim Joint Matriculation Board Examination in Christian Religious Studies consists of three papers, namely:

History and Religion of Israel (Old Testament)

The Synoptic Gospels ii.

Christianity in Sierra Leone and Nigeria from the 18th century to date iii. and Contemporary Issues.

The programme is designed to enable candidates explain what and why they believe about the Christian faith. It is for this reason that theological issues have been built into the Old and New Testaments courses to help candidates apply their knowledge of the Bible in their daily living. Contemporary issues and History of Christianity in West Africa describe how Christianity was introduced and accepted by West African communities with particular reference to Sierra Leone, and Nigeria. Then contemporary issues deal with problems that the Church grapples with in modern society. This section of the programme is designed to help candidates identify and utilize solutions to these teething social problems in Christian perspective. Finally, the programme prepares candidates for university education.

Objectives 2.00

The general objectives of the Christian Religious Studies programme shall include the following among others. At the end of the study of the courses in Christian Religious Studies, candidates should be able to:

- Explain how the Christian Bible came into existence (Old and New (a) Testaments).
- Enumerate outstanding kings and prophets of Israel during the Monarchy, pointing out their contributions to the religious, social and political developments of Israel.
- Explain the teachings of Jesus and their relevance to the Nigerian Christian (c) today.

121

Trace the history and developments of Christianity in West Africa with particular reference to Sierra Leone, and Norwerkacom (d)

Discuss Christian response to specific modern social problems, pointing out the effects of such problems on the individual and the society and (e) proffer solutions in Christian perspective.
